Hello Marissa,

The stipulation extends the time to answer a bit further than the date initially proposed (February 4th as opposed to January 17th). We will be meeting with our client tomorrow to discuss the change in date and finalizing draft language related to the definition of "personnel file." Please allow me to reach out afterwards.

Kind regards,

David

Dear Mr. Jeffries and Mr. Restituyo,

Thank you for taking the time to speak last week.

We are attaching, as agreed and in advance of this Friday's meet-and-confer call, drafts of the joint status letter and proposed case management plan that the parties are required to submit to Judge Woods by December 13. There is a 6-page limit for the joint status letter, but we have left space for the sections to be completed separately by each party.

We look forward to speaking with you on Friday. Separately, you indicated to Mr. Birenboim that you would send the April 2018 no probable cause determination in this matter. Please forward that letter when you are able.

Many thanks,

Marissa
